Proclamation

"Domestic Violence Awareness Month" October 2019

Whereas, one in every four women will experience domestic violence during her lifetime; one in every five women will experience sexual assault in her lifetime; and one in seven men have had abusive or unwanted sexual experiences in their lifetime; and

Whereas, approximately 15.5 million children are exposed to domestic violence every year; and

Whereas, domestic violence is a serious crime that affects people of all races, ages, gender, and income levels; and

Whereas, the crimes of domestic and sexual violence violate an individual's privacy, dignity, security, and humanity due to the systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, psychological, and economic control and/or abuse; and

Whereas, victims of violence should have access to medical and legal services, counseling, emergency and transitional housing, and other supportive services so that they can safely escape the cycle of abuse; and

Whereas, we encourage domestic and sexual violence victims and their families to seek assistance from appropriate victims' services organizations such as the dedicated systems and non-profit based victim advocates in Adams County; and

Whereas, the 17th Judicial District Domestic Violence Task Force, state coalitions, national organizations, and other agencies nationwide are committed to increasing public awareness of domestic and sexual violence and its prevalence, and to eliminating it through prevention and education; and

Whereas, important partnerships have been formed among criminal and juvenile justice agencies, healthcare providers, allied professionals, and victim services to assist victims of domestic and sexual violence and their families; and

Whereas, Adams County, Colorado, has a moral obligation to work to prevent domestic violence, address its brutal and destructive effects and make ending domestic violence a local priority; and

Row, Therefore, Be It Resolved That, the Board of County Commissioners of the County of Adams, State of Colorado, proclaims October 2019 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month and urges all citizens to actively support first responders, victim of crime and their service providers in our community to work towards the elimination of domestic violence and sexual assault.

In witness whereof, we have set our hands and caused the seal of the county to be affixed October 1, 2019.
